

Subscription Agreement:
Inactive Peace Officers

Thank you for choosing PATROL. To complete your PATROL subscription, this form must be completed, signed, and returned to the League of Minnesota Cities Insurance Trust (LMCIT) by email (patrol@lmc.org) or fax (651-215-4155).

PLEASE NOTE: As of the date of this agreement, your PATROL subscription will automatically renew each year on January 1 unless you cancel your subscription in writing by the previous December 1.

If you have any questions about your PATROL subscription, please contact Kristen LeRoy at patrol@lmc.org or 651-281-1268.

LMCIT and the Individual agree to the following terms and conditions:

- I. This Agreement is entered into between the Individual and LMCIT.
- II. LMCIT will annually verify the Individual’s POST license number with POST. If it is in inactive status, the Individual will pay the annual inactive officer rate. If it has lapsed, the Individual will pay the private individual rate. Please provide the following information:
 - a. Individual’s name: _____
 - b. Individual’s POST license number: _____
 - c. Individual’s phone number: _____
 - d. Individual’s email address: _____
 - e. Individual’s physical address: _____
- III. This Agreement will automatically renew each year and will be in effect unless one of the following occurs:
 - a. LMCIT receives written notice of cancellation from the Individual by December 1;
 - b. LMCIT in its sole discretion determines to discontinue or limit the availability of PATROL, provided that LMCIT will return a pro rata share of that year’s annual subscription fee to the Individual based on the number of months in that year the Individual does not have access to PATROL because of LMCIT’s action. .
- IV. The Individual acknowledges that PATROL is not a substitute for competent and timely legal advice and that PATROL cannot and does not take into account all aspects of a particular fact situation. While LMCIT endeavors to make PATROL as accurate as possible, there are several reasons beyond LMCIT's control why the accuracy of PATROL information cannot be guaranteed. These include but are not limited to the following:

- a. The delivery format and time spent on topics through PATROL does not allow for a detailed discussion of subtle legal issues that could turn out to be important in a particular law enforcement situation.
- b. Laws can change without notice to LMCIT, individuals developing PATROL content and materials, or PATROL subscribers.
- c. Future legal decisions may depart from current precedent outlined through PATROL.
- d. Individuals using PATROL may not understand the intended meaning of the course materials.

Because of these limitations and as a condition of subscribing to PATROL, the Individual hereby waive any and all claims related to the use of PATROL or reliance on PATROL content and materials. The Individual agrees not to bring a claim or lawsuit against the League of Minnesota Cities Insurance Trust, its employees, officers, agents, board members, contractors, subcontractors or affiliates, arising in any way out of reliance on information provided through PATROL.

- V. The Individual acknowledges that this Agreement does not grant it any ownership or other legal interest in PATROL or PATROL materials.
- VI. Nothing in this Agreement creates any right in any person not a party to it. Neither the Individual nor LMCIT waives any immunity from or limitation on liability to which either or both are entitled under law.
- VII. LMCIT may modify the terms of this Agreement by providing written notice to the Individual by November 1 of any year, in which case the modifications may take effect no sooner than the next January 1.

The individual has read this entire agreement and accepts the terms.
